The Newsletter of the Barony of Windmasters' Hill

June 2006

Welcome to the Windlore!

Greetings and welcome to the June 2006 issue of the Windlore, the newsletter for the Barony of Windmasters' Hill. This newsletter is distributed primarily in an electronic format and is accessible from the website www.windmastershill.org. If you desire to be sent a hard copy of the windlore via mail, please submit a written request to the Barony by coming to a monthly Baronial Meeting or by contacting the Baronial Chronicler:

A Letter from Their Excellencies

Greetings unto the People of Windmasters' Hill,

We have just returned from the coronation of Havordh and Mary Grace as King and Queen of Gleann Abhann, who were pleased to have several Atlantians present. We all had an excellent time but are glad to be home. Now that we are back we are ready to continue working on our baronial projects in preparation for all of the upcoming events.

We wish to remind everyone again to please support Buckstons' Mid Summer event in June – it promises to be much fun. We are happily looking forward to our Baronial Champions event in July. We strongly encourage everyone to participate in the competitions to choose our new champions even if you may not be able to serve as a champion. By your participation, you help us test our prospective champions so that we may choose well.

Lord Gaston has organized a joint canton fighter practice to be held on Sunday afternoons at 1pm at Lake Crabtree Park near the airport on weekends when the Baronial Practice is not held. We support his efforts and will attend this practice whenever possible. In addition to fighter practice, we will also be working on arts projects at the park. We hope to see many of you there!

In order to speed progress on all of our projects (personal and Baronial) for the year, we will host project nights each Wednesday evening at 6:30pm beginning on June 7th. Directions will be posted on the Keep. Bring your own projects to work on or we will gladly put you to work on projects for the Barony! Remember that A&S is a large part of the War of the Wings. We want all of our populace to make a strong showing (actually we want to win it all!). Please check out the list at WaroftheWings.com and plan to enter as many A&S categories as you can.

Many individuals, households and Baronies have already joined us for our War of the Wings. We still ask each of you to encourage your friends and associates to join us as well. On the martial side we are doing well with heavies and very well with equestrians. However, we still need to beef up our rapier and archer contingents. Remember, there are just as many rapier points as there are heavy war points. We also want to secure the archery and the youth combat point.

On another note, the Windmasters' Hill Happy Bottom Riding Club met again on May 12th. We had five members there and the ride again went well. Our next ride is planned on Sunday evening, June 4th, at Dead Broke Farms. Information will be posted again on the Keep. If you are interested in riding please let us know and come join us. Right now we are just doing trail rides, but in the future we would like to have full blown SCA equestrian practices.

Finally, we are planning a Baronial Curia for July. to discuss with you, the populace, what you would like to see us focus on and ways to improve the Barony. We want and need your input to help us provide the leadership you want for Windmasters'. The time and place is still being determined, so watch the Keep and the Windlore for details.

OFFICER'S Letters

Chronicler's Quill

Greetings to you, oh noble Gentles of Windmasters' Hill!

Midsummer's Tourney and Baronial Champions loom before us in the very near future, with other local events by Elvegast and Nimenfeld in the post summer season and, of course, the War of the Wings in October. (Be there or be severely chastised!)

As always, I am still in need of a deputy for the Chronicler position. If you are interested, please contact me.

The Herald's Shout-Out

Whose heraldry is this? Can you Blazon it?

Greetings,

I hope this missive finds you all well and enjoying Spring. The warm weather brought a migration of heralds to our fair Barony in May. I regret that due to mundane obligations, I was unable to attend, however I hear it was a great event. I encourage all who are interested in Heraldry and Heralding to take classes, volunteer to help out (or to shadow someone), or look for a teacher. Our Barony has a wealth of wonderful Heralds. On that note, I would like to make a list of Heralds in our Barony who are willing to be contacted when someone needs a vocal Herald at an event, or a "book" Herald to help them with a name or heraldry. Please contact me with your contact information if I can put you on this list. Let me know what type Heraldry you can help with.

In Service,

Tangwystl ferch Morgana

String Thing Lives!

Monthly meetings of the group dedicated to all crafts of string and fabric are being held the 4th Sunday of each month from 2pm-5pm.

The next meeting will be on June 25th.

Contact Francesca at 471 2727 for details.

Minutes for the Baronial Meeting in May

(as taken by Dunstan LeHeryngmongere)

Meeting was held at Carolina Pines and was called to order by Steafan at 4:02 pm, with approximately 25 people in attendance.

Their Excellencies were not in attendance.

Officer reports:

Chatelaine- Abhlin mentioned that Attilium is having a demo on July 1st in Cliffdale. More info to follow.

Chirurgion- no report

Chronicler- asked for the meeting to approve of continuing to send the 4 complimentary copies out to people who did not have electronic access. Motion made to approve doing this, seconded and passed. Chronicler needs a deputy.

Herald- Is available for any who need help, and also needs a deputy.

Knight Marshall- 1st quarter's waivers for all fighter practices MUST be turned in by June 1st or else fighting for that group is suspended. So far only Nimenfeld has turned theirs in. This is VERY IMPORTANT, and Canton seneschals were urged to take a hand in getting the paperwork in.

Rapier Marshall- Stressed that Sunday rapier practice starts at 12:00 noon. Would like to see more fighters gearing up in preparation for Baronial Champions and Pennsic.

Archery Marshall- no practices yet, is working on scenarios for Midsummers.

A&S Officer- needs canton reports. There will be another gathering at Maddalena's house (date TBA) to work on Banners and sheetwalls. Congrats to Livia who is now scrivener royal.

Webminister- Nothing to report

Quartermaster- There will be a June inventory of the shed. Beatrice really wants to hear about any Baronial Gear NOT in the storage shed and any non-baronial gear that IS in the storage shed. She will be pricing large coffee pots in hopes of purchasing one for the Barony.

Minister of Minors- Has changed her name to Margaret Cochrane. Needs a Deputy. One idea she is kicking around for Cattle Raids is having the kids armed with boffer weapons chasing cows. Needs cows for volunteers.

Exchequer- was not there, but did send numbers- The Barony has 13,348.89 in the bank, of which 7,073.55 is NOT allotted.

Seneschal-

The next Baronial meeting will be on June 11th at Lake Crabtree county park. Fighter practice is at noon, meeting is at 4:00. The following meeting will be on Sunday, July 9th at Optimist farm after the Baronial Champions event. This meeting will not begin until the entire site is cleaned and ready to check out.

The Baronial Phone list will be distributed to the Canton seneschals over the next couple of weeks for review/additions/comment.

Canton reports:

Attilium- Business meetings are still the third Thursday of every month. Sunday fighter practices have moved location but not time. Attilium may start choosing to have a moving fighter practice 1/month and also may start Archery practices.

Buckston- about 65 people attended Herald's and Scribes Symposium, the fundraiser lunch made about $250.00 for the church. Midsummers' Twilight tourney is June 17th. Some positions for it still need to be filled.

Elvegast- lots of the students have gone home. The event in November is in process. Fighter practices have moved to Lake Crabtree County Park at 1 pm.

K-Berg- Is still K-Bergin' on. Monday night meetings, Thursday night practices.

Nimenfeld- No report.

Old Business:

Pennsic- pre-reg's are coming in now. Registration online is due in by June 15th. The Barun's beer bash will be Tuesday. Court will be Thursday. Girard asked for 150 dollars to be allotted for purchasing needed tools (shovel, hammer, posthole digger, etc.) to be bought for and left at Pennsic for camp set up. Motion was made, seconded and passed.

Baronial Champions- theme will be 14th century Germany and 15th century Italy. Still some positions needing to be filled. Rosalind stressed the need for everyone to encourage people to compete for Baronial Champion in every field to make the competitions good and varied. Anyone can compete, and it is not necessarily the best or most talented who win as champion so much as it is the person who will do the best job as champion.

General Announcements:

The WARLORD announced that at the next Baronial Practice there will be a class on Group Intimidation.

ADRIANNA wonders what has happened to the non-fighter support group at fighter practices and invites all to attend whether they fight or not for the company and good spirits.

CALLI- announced that War of the Wings will be having a period encampment contest and that he would welcome people to help him set up their 14th/15th century encampment or to start their own.

PHILLIPA arrived in the nick of time to talk about Midsummer's Twilight Tourney, a Late period, Hamlet themed event-in-reverse in Roxboro on June 17th. Feast is lunch with fighting in the afternoon/evening. Youth combat, equestrian, dog coursing and artisans row will be happening. Come one, come all!

There being no further announcements, the meeting was called to end at 5:17 pm.

Directions to get to the next Baronial Meeting:

The next Baronial Meeting location has changed!!!! The next meeting will be on June 11th at Lake Crabtree County Park (fighter practice at 12, meeting at 4pm) Directions are as follows:

Take Highway 40 to exit 285. (Aviation Parkway/Morrisville exit). At the top of the ramp turn AWAY from the airport. (If you were traveling EAST turn right. If you were traveling WEST turn left). Drive down that road for less than a mile. The entrance to the park will be on your left. Turn into the park and look for the large grassy field filled with people dressed in funny clothes.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Here are events that are in the area, nearby or that might be of interest. Any item listed with a  is NOT an official SCA event. Events marked with a (BP) are Baronial Progress events.

June

Summer University is going on June 3rd in Charlottesville, VA.

Midsummer's Twilight Tourney will be held in Roxboro, NC on June 16th-18th.

July

Baronial Champions will be held in Apex, North Carolina at Optimist farm on July 7-9.

August

August brings us a tiny little event called Pennsic.

Pssst . . . Hey . . .
You . . . Yes, you . . .
Why aren't you getting ready to go to the coolest
event of the Month,
Midsummer's Twilight
Tourney? All the best people (and horses, and dogs) are going to be there . . .
Be there or be laughed
at mercilessly by people
much less cool than you are!

Period Jokes from Wits, Fittes and Fancies: (ca 1595)

The Earle of Vrenia asked one that came from the Court, what was reported of him there? Who answered: Neither good nor bad (my Lord) that I could heare: With that the Earle commanded him to be throughly blowe-basted and beaten: and then afterward gaue him fiftie Duckets, saying: Now maist thou report of Vrenia both good and bad.

A Gallego of Spaine went to the warres, and was shot with an arrowe into the head. The Surgeon searching the wound, said, that he could not possibly liue, for that the arrow had pierst his braine. The Gallego answered: That cannot be, for I haue no braine at all; had I had braines I trow I had neuer come to the warres.

A Mastiffe dog flue vpon a passenger, and he with the pike of his staff: ran him into the guttes, and kill'd him: The owner of the dog hereupon commenc'd his action against the partie: And the matter being brought to the vpshot, the Iudge asked him, why he did not rather strike the dog with the wood end of the staffe, then with the pike: He answered: And like your Honor, he flue at me with his teeth, not with his taile.

It was a great controuersie in the Vniuersitie of Leyden betweene the Physicke and Law Doctors, whether of them should take place foremost at the Commencements: And a merrie Chancellor being deputed judge of the difference, asked them whether at an execution, the felon or the hangman ought to goe foremost to the gallowes: They al answered: The felon: Euen so? (reply'd the Chancellor) Then yee Lawyers, goe yee foremost as theeues, and yee Physitians follow ye after as hangmen.

Not Long Ago or Far Away

By Dunstan LeHeryngmongere

This song is written in honor of the past histories, present conflicts and future fellowships between Windmasters' Hill and Sacred Stone. It goes, very approximately, to the tune of the old traditional folk song 'Barbara Allen'.

Not long ago or far away
They were two lands of great renown
Windmasters' Hill and Sacred Stone
Where love and honor could be found

In Sacred Stone there dwelt a maid
Of noble heart and beauty bright
Who loved the Phoenix of her land
And was her Barony's delight

Windmasters' Hill was home to one
A lord of faith and courage, too
Who Held the Kittyhawk on high
And walked a path both straight and true

The day the lady met the lord
Each stood and gazed in ecstasy
Each in their wonder did forget
That love between them could not be

For both their lands were now at war
Their soldiers clashed, their Barons boomed
But love they did; as lovers will
Although their love was ever doomed

And so they hid their love away
They met in corners dark and dim
They could not let it be made known
That he loved her and she loved him

One day he came unto her land
And they went to her Baron Strong
And asked his blessing for there love
And he would move to Sacred Stone

But this great man he looked and frowned
And in grave voice he counseled then-
"No maiden of the Sacred Stone
Will be defiled by Eastern men"

And so they fled unto his land
And they went to his Baron brave
And they did make the same request
So that there love they both could have

But he did rant and he did rave
And railed against their simple plan
He said no maiden from the west
Would be allowed to wed this man

And so they fled from both their homes
In hope of finding middle ground
Though both in truth knew that ahead
Their path was bleak and sorrow bound

So in a place called Elchenburgh
They shared a short-lived paradise
They knew that soon their time would end
But each good fortune has its price

And then one day they saw two troops
One from the east; and one the west
And they knew war was coming soon
And it would end their lovers rest

And so they climbed unto a height
And built a pyre and they prayed
To Phoenix and to Kittyhawk
In hopes their love could still be saved

And as the soldiers fast approached
Both Noble creatures heard the pleas
They told the two of just one way
That they could find a lasting peace

And so the two stood up aloft
The Lord did lean into the wind
And, lo the breezes took him off
And he was never seen again

And she did stand beside the pyre
Upon her face there was no fear
And as she leaned in to the flames
They took her and she disappeared

Then both were gone, but not for good
For it is said in both their lands
Wherever breezes fan the flames
It is two lovers holding hands

Not long ago or far away
They were two lands of great reknown
Windmasters' Hill and Sacred Stone
Where love and honor still are found.

A Midsummer's Twilight Tourney June 16-18, 2006. Buckston-on-Eno (Roxboro, NC)

A Ghost walks at midnight, there's treachery afoot and suspicion is in the air. Join the Canton of Buckston-on-Eno for a tribute to Shakespeare's Hamlet around the eve of Midsummer. In this non-traditional event there will be fighting in the twilight hours, a feast at mid-day and many activities sure to delight all ages.

Martial Activities: There will be Heavy and Rapier Tournaments in the twilight hours beginning in the late afternoon.

Archery: An Archery Tournament will be held in the afternoon.

Atlantian Cavalry: The Atlantian Cavalry will host a day of Tournaments at the main event site. For all Cavalry related questions, please contact Lady Ursula de Nunez (Desiree Johnson). E-mail: draco7a@yahoo.com.

Youth Fighting: There will be a combat tournament for all eligible Youth of Atlantia on Saturday beginning at 11:00am. A class for the Youth will also be held on Saturday so those Youth and parents that are camping may attend a Youth Fighter practice on Sunday morning. For more information, please contact our Youth Marshall Lord Helmut von Rheineck (Troy DeFrates). E-mail: tdefrates@nc.rr.com.

Artisan's Row: To further a day focusing on participation and activity, artists and artisans are invited to demonstrate and display their skill and works. To participate, please contact Maestra Francesca la Curiosa (muirdean@mindspring.com). Come join the Artisan's Row!

A Day for Reveling: As the fighting will not take place until the late afternoon there will be other entertainments to capture the attention of those in attendance. The Atlantian Cavalry will host their Tournament next to the main fighting field. Dog Coursing will take place in the morning, music will delight throughout the day and games of the day will be played. Our Mistress of the Revels, Maitresse Ysolt la Bretonne, will offer delights for the eye and ear.

Feast: A Feast to delight all the senses will be provided by Irmgart Hasenschlalf. In keeping with the Midsummer's tradition the feast will be served at 1:00 p.m. and will feature delights appropriate to the time of day. All seats are $6.00 regardless of age. For dietary questions, please contact our cook Irmgart Hasenschlalf: irmgart@gmail.com.

Summer Supper: A light supper will be available for purchase for $2.00.

Site: Farm Ventures, (Pearson County Group Homes) 363 Jerry Dixon Road, Leasburg, NC 27291. The site is dry. Camping is encouraged. Period pavilions will be place at the tournament field. Well supervised dogs on leads are permitted. For questions concerning horses, please refer to the Cavalry Marshall.

Event Fees:

Day Trip Adult	$10.00
Day Trip or Camping Child (Ages 6-17)	$ 5.00*
Camping Adult	$12.00
Feast (any seat)	$ 6.00

*Maximum charge per family: Two (2) paid adults + Two (2) paid children: $34.00 (excludes feast).

A light breakfast on Sunday morning is included with the camping fee.

No charge for children under 6 years old (unless they are taking a feast space).

Non-member surcharge of $3.00 is added to any adult without proof of SCA membership.
