A Note from Their Excellencies:

Greetings Everyone,

We want to take a moment to say thank you to everyone who came out to make Ymir the truly excellent event that it was. Thank you again to our autocrats and their staff. This year's Ymir once again displayed the greatness of Windmasters' Hill.

Her Excellency would also like to say a special word of thanks to all the wonderful gentles who helped make Her Highness's Tea so special. The music was excellent and the food was bountiful and delicious. This year's tea certainly displayed the hospitality and culinary arts of our fair Barony! She would also especially like to thank Galeran for organizing such a lovely tea and Lady Tessa for once again creating the beautiful invitations.

There is one issue that we would like to touch on for Ymir. Our Baronial Birthday has now grown to the size that we can no longer wait until November or December to begin looking at bids. The size and nature of Ymir just will no longer allow it. Thus, we will be accepting bids in May and June and make our decision in July. If you have questions about the bid process, please contact us or Lady Ursula. If you are interested in finding out more about what it takes to run Ymir, please contact us, Lady Ursula, or one of the many fine autocrats that have worked hard over the years to make this event so successful.

We have several events coming up in the Barony. Kappellenberg is hosting Battle of the Oranges at the end of March and Buckston will be putting on A Ball in Honor of St. Vitus on April 19th. Both events promise fun, engaging, and unique. We would like to encourage the entire Barony to attend.

We know many members of our fair Barony are planning to attend Gulf Wars in March and we wish you glorious victory on the battlefield. With Gulf Wars only weeks away, Pennsic will not be far behind. We would like to encourage all our warriors to attend our Baronial War Practices so that we may once again train and prepare for the coming wars of summer and fall. We are also still in need of a Pennsic Camp Steward. If you are interested in taking up the reins of our Baronial Pennsic Encampment, please contact us or Lady Ursula (our Baronial Seneschal).

We look forward to seeing all of you in the coming months,

Gaston and Rosalind

From the Exchequer:

Greetings from the Exchequer for the Great Barony of Windmasters' Hill!

What a difference a day makes! Today is the day after the February Baronial Meeting. As the Chronicler's minutes indicate, the populous voted to un-allocate all allocations except those required by the current financial policy. Thus, the current figures for the Baronial accounts are: Total funds are $11,937.76 of which $550.00 is allocated ($500 for Baronial Emergency Funds and $50 for the Baronage Discretionary Fund), and $11,387.76 is unallocated. At the February Baronial meeting the Barony did approve making $630.00 available if we need to pay the full deposit for the Farm Ventures site for June 14th.

This month I am working on switching banks. We will be moving to Wachovia rather than SunTrust since SunTrust now charges service fees to non-profit organization accounts.

As promised, I am providing the summary figures from the 2006 and 2007 Domesday Reports. (*Chronicler's Note: These are found on page **) If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact me. I appreciate everyone's continued support. The Barony is doing well and we are on track in addressing the recommendations from the Review of Books.

YIS,

Tréphine la Broderesse

From the Chronicler:

New in this issue: A report from the Royal and Baronial courts from Ymir – this will be a continuing feature for all Baronial events. Also, new information on the Battle of the Oranges, and the first part of an article from Lady Rebecca. More new features coming next month!

Minister of Arts Report:

Special thanks to everyone involved in the A&S at Ymir, including our own Dunstan leHeryngmongere for running the A&S and setting up the classes and all the teachers who took time out of their day to teach other's the joy of their art. I was especially amazed by the quality of the Youth entries. I think the Barony has a very bright A&S future. If you have a moment in your schedule, please keep Kingdom A&S in mind: <http://kasf.atlantia.sca.org/>. It is always an amazing display.

Yours in service,

Jehanette de Provins

Notes from the Baronial Meeting, February 19:

Ursula began the meeting at 7:15, though then it was noted that it was published as 7:30 and it was noted that it shouldn't start until the published time. Ursula asked that people please tell her if something is wrong on the website, please let her know. There was a pause for food.

Meeting started again @ 7:30. Ursula began by apologizing for the cramped space (the meeting was held at the home of the Baronial Seneschal due to the continuing renovations at Buckston's normal location) and thanking everyone for coming. She asked that officers kept things concise due to the location. She then turned the meeting over to the Baronage.

Baron: His Excellency opened by talking about Ymir, which was great, and he hoped that it was as good for everyone else as it was for the Baronage. The new site brought new challenges, and everyone pulled together even though there was some confusion in places and could have gone badly. Baron Gaston mentioned that he'd like people to be more respectful of the Royalty and the Game we play, especially around newcomers. He continued speaking of baronial togetherness and how one never knew who was looking up to you, and how we should all be a good example for each other. He concluded by stating that he wanted to start a canton recruitment / retention program over the next 6-8 months – Windmasters Hill has a great location, good sites, and enough money, and the people we have are wonderful, but in order to continue to grow as a Barony we need more people.

The Windlore / Barony of Windmasters' Hill

Baroness: We need a Pennsic Camp Steward soon, though a few people have expressed interest. We also want to have a ymir bid in may or june so that it can be approved in July. We can't pick a bid in December anymore, and have Ymir run in the way it's supposed to - and the Kingdom loves Ymir. To make sure we have a site next year, Betsy Jeff Penn is reserved for the 13th/14th/15th of February, 2009, but if someone finds a better one that's great too.

Exchequer: Trepina passed out a list of allocations, as shown in the last Windlore, and asked that allocations be removed if not required by baronial policy – which states we have to keep $550 allocated for discretionary fund and emergency fund. Discussion ensued of the sources and distribution of the camping equipment fund, as well as of the scriptorium fund, and eric fund. It was announced that the Got Vice event has been

From the Minister of Youth

Ymir Children's Activities went wonderfully well. The Wee One's Corner, Reading Corner, and Children's Corner were all well attended. Due to lack of interest in the Teen Gallery this feature will not be repeated unless at the request of members of the populace wishing its return.

Congratulations to Charles and Odile who were inducted into the Order of St Nicholas for their work with the children at this event and many others. Congratulations also to Sigrid, newest recipient of the Alcyon for her A&S efforts.

Background checks for Youth Officers have begun. The Kingdom Youth Officer has stated that as this process is still undergoing testing she will notify those chosen to submit their information. I have been chosen for the first round of submission, so if all goes well our Barony will be one of the first to be compliant with the new rules.

The following are the relevant excerpts from the announcements I received. Please keep this in mind if you are planning any events or activities involving children.

"As was announced last year, the SCA is implementing a background check policy for the benefit of our membership and the organization. The background checks will be performed by a properly licensed vendor for all persons in leadership and supervisory roles that may require contact with otherwise unchaperoned minors. Officials who are required to have background checks include, but are not limited to, youth activities officers at all levels, adults acting as youth marshals for any martial activity, persons organizing/in charge of youth activities for events.

This policy will be implemented on February 15, 2008. The Kingdom Seneschals will be informing those who need to undergo background checks of this requirement. Current officers requiring background checks that are subject to this policy will have 4 weeks to return the appropriate paperwork before their warrants will be revoked. Any questions concerning the implementation of the policy should be directed to your Kingdom Seneschal.

- Patrick Anderson
President
Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc."

"As of March 15th, all events holding youth activities will be required to have sponsor for the activities, who is a warranted youth officer and who has submitted to the record check process.

Fiona MacLeod

postponed, and the money can be unallocated. The kitchen fund was also available for un-allocation. At this point Gaston mentioned that we were at a deficit from where we need to be based on the possibility of a bad Ymir. Nikulai (finally) moved that all funds be de-allocated that weren't required by baronial policy and the motion passed unopposed. Trepina also noted that our net worth went down last year, though part of that was payment for the coronets and part was based on official depreciation of the tents. Gaston finally noted that the barony *ought* to have 20,000.

Next Baronial Meeting:
March 20th at Elvegast!

Chronicler: Submissions are of course always needed and reports for the WL (Ct: As of the time of the meeting) are due tomorrow.

Webminister: Nothing has changed on the website due to a little thing called Ymir.

Chatelaine: Not Present.

Rapier Marshal: Ymir went well, no Baronial practice this month.

Archery: Ymir went well, and the "fun" targets were quite popular.

A&S Minister: Not Present.

Minister of Minors: Lady Marianna discussed activities at Ymir, which went well, and made plans for upcoming events. She also mentioned that a St. Nicholas and an Alcyon were presented at Ymir. She further went on to explain the new Kingdom Background check procedures, which are presented in her report in the Windlore.

Armored Combat: Wystric mentioned that Valdemar will be stepping up as Buckston's heavy marshal, and mentioned he'd like a deputy so that he can transition the office within the year – a brief attempt at coopting someone was made.

Herald: The heraldic consult table at Ymir went well. Lots of Windmasters got awards!

Minister of the Lists: Helwynn asked that MoL's please be careful which forms are used, especially youth forms, as there have been recent changes.

From the Co-Autocrat Ymir XXXIII:

I cannot express how thankful I am for the marvelous staff of Ymir XXXIII and I know Makai shares my sentiments completely. The event was a massive undertaking under an extremely tight timeline with a few monkey wrenches thrown in for good measure. I am amazed and thrilled at how well the event ran from start to finish and all the credit is due to an enthusiastic, creative, capable and loyal staff who were dedicated to making this event a success. On a personal note; this was the largest event that I have ever (Co-) Autocratted and all I had to do was delegate! Thank you all for a fun, low-stress (really!) and smooth running event. An unofficial head count is ~578.

Their Excellencies noted at the Baronial Meeting that they would seek bids for YMIR XXXIV in May and June for a decision in July. If you are interested in Autocrating Ymir next year, I will provide you with the final budget, program, maps, notes and other information that may assist you in your bid preparation. We have tentatively reserved the Betsy Jeff Penn 4H Center for next year (February 13-15, 2009). It is not a requirement that you use this site for your bid but it is available.

Thank you to all who supported the event from Staff members to those willingly pressed into service (Press Gangs Rock!) to those who came to fight, share camaraderie, artistic skills and fellowship. I am proud to be a Member of the Populace of Windmasters' Hill!

Philippa Tillinghast

The Windlore / Barony of Windmasters' Hill

Canton Reports: Buckston Buckston is still between church homes while we wait for St. Phillips to complete their renovation. In the meantime they are meeting at the home of Valdemar and Ursula, and appreciate their gracious hospitality! Don't forget that April 19th Buckston on Eno will be hosting A Ball in Honor of St. Vitus' at St. Phillips Church.

Atilium has a new seneschal. Nimenfeld – Business meetings are on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays, A&S on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Wednesdays. Daniello will be autocrat for the event formerly known as Cattle Raids - more news later. Elvegast - things going well, Ymir made money. Elvegast will host next Baronial Meeting on the 20th. There will be a emo at the Renn Faire the 2nd weekend in April, and Iso one on NCSU campus in mid March before the Oranges event. Kappellenberg invites everyone to attend the Battle of the Oranges, and still meets on Monday nights.

Seneschal: Ursula reported that a small committee is still reviewing the financial policy - target date is end of March so that it can be reviewed at the end of the meeting. Suspension ends at the end of March. Ideally, we'll vote on the policy at the April meeting, after which it will be sent to Kingdom and when they approve it, it becomes official. The Baronial Calendar has been updated with some formatting changes, and will be added to a Google calendar later, or possibly will be added as a iCalendar on the barony webspace.

She would like to see more small events - geared towards newcomers and towards the barony itself, ie War College, etc. just something to think about.

Ymir: 570 trolled in, $9,870 deposited, ~$4,400 profit, has to be given to cantons and then given back to Barony. There were a lot of donations, we should have only made about $3600. There was a post-mortem meeting after Ymir, which was something new. Notes are available for next year's team, including financials and comments from staff.

New Business: Gaston mentioned we didn't hold a lot of events in 2007, Oranges and Vitus will be nice and small in the spring after the giant Ymir, but also that the "Vice" site (Farm Ventures) is still reserved for June if we wanted to do something. It has a big field and nice hall. Adriana mentioned that she ran a Pas at the same site a few years ago, and would be willing to run the same sort of event again, and would put together an event bid for the Barony for next meeting. Discussion ensued of this idea and other events. Phillipa wants to run a garb wars type event, needs a large room / gymnasium for cheap, in October. If this goes well, we might be able to get a KWCS to Atlantia. Nikulai reported that there would probably not be a Crusades, given that if there wasn't a site by some date that has passed (Coronation?) the 2008 event wouldn't happen. He also moved that we authorize $630 in case we needed to hold the site immediately. There were objections, based on lack of planning at this point and not wanting the Barony to spend money without a full plan. It was pointed out that the site contract does state that we can get a full refund if we cancel 30 days before the event. If the event runs the same as last time, it'll be about $3000 according to Adriana. The authorization is just to hold the site if we have to hold the date (according to site rules, we only have to pay the additional site fee immediately if they have other interested parties for that weekend), and authorizing the emergency fee doesn't authorize a particular event. A bid will be picked at the March meeting, so if people have ideas other than the Pas they are welcome to present. The motion to pay for the site only in the event that it was required to hold the date, and contingent upon the ability to cancel 30 days out, was voted upon and passed with 17 in favor and 5 opposed.

Rosalind said that there needed to be a baronial repair day for the eric, tent, maintenance etc. We need to pick a weekend for that, probably in April or possibly in March, there may be multiple days.

String Thing!

Mistress Francesca will be holding String Thing at her house on March 30 from 2-5 – Directions can be found on the Baronial Calendar page.

Bring your sewing, knitting, weaving, lacemaking, naalbinding, or any other string related project!

Battle of the Oranges

The people of the village of Ivrea gather each year to commemorate the downfall of a tyrant, and to compete between fraternities to prove their worth and superiority. And so we, too, gather in Windmasters Hill, to compete with friends and celebrate the arrival of spring.

Bring your fraternity (household, group of friends, random strangers) of just you and your best friend or up to nine of your closest friends (or, again, random strangers. Limit of two peers, not two peerages)! Demonstrate your mastery of the arts and wage battle on the melee field. The winning fraternity shall be that which garners the most accolades and performs best in all areas of competition (measured by points awarded for performance in all A&S, combat, and service, and given by the populace at their discretion. So you don't have to fight to win, if your A&S is unbeatable).

Do you not wish to compete as a fraternity? Come anyway and judge your fellows' performances, and garner accolades for yourself!

Prizes will be given for the fraternity with the best overall performance (relative to size), and the individual with the best overall performance, as well as for the individual A&S competitions.

A simple lunch will be provided starting at 11:30, with a dessert bake sale to benefit the Canton of Nimenefeld.

The day will conclude with a sumptuous feast prepared by Lady Guenièvre de Monmarché!

Battle of the Oranges

Martial Activities:

Come try your might against your fellow armored and rapier fighters as you battle for control of the village of Ivrea. And it wouldn't be warfare in Italy without Genovese bowmen, so combat archers are welcome! Points for fraternities will be awarded for prowess and valor by observers, and success on the melee field!

Arts & Sciences Activities:

Arts and Sciences points awarded in all competitions will further the efforts of your team to win the day's prize. Youth may enter all competitions and will be given age-appropriate feedback based on the age of the artist indicated on the display form.

Cooking Competition: Edible creations featuring the theme (not just the flavor or the color . . . be creative!) of "orange." Recipes required; documentation encouraged.

Static A&S Competition:

Items in any media used for the celebration of Carnival or other similar festivals encouraging relaxed morals, populace misrule, or disregard of government authority. Foolery and impudence welcomed! Documentation required.

Live Performance Competition:

Stir the populace to overthrow the dictator, to cast off the bonds of morality and sane conduct, and to embrace the spirit of Carnival through music, verse, speeches or short theatrical presentations (10 minutes or less). Sign up for one or more performances (schedule permitting) on the battlefield.

Costume Competition:

Throughout the day the populace can award points to the Lords and Ladies in the best Carnival costuming.

Children's Activities:

Even your children can contribute to the success of your fraternity. Activities run by Lady Mariana de Salamanca will be held in the feast hall through the day, and she'll be awarding points to the participants.

The Windlore / Barony of Windmasters' Hill

Analyzing a Hand - Part 1, Introduction

Recently I've started studying calligraphy more carefully as I like the "how to" books to an extent but I feel that some of the exemplars in them are more unique than common. I'm not certain of the documentation for some of the claims as well.

Some people say that analyzing the details of a hand is paleography –

"the art of analysing and reading handwriting. Some would call it a science, and to a degree it has acquired a veneer of scientific style, classification and ordering, but ultimately it involves one human individual attempting to understand the unique efforts at communication of another" <sup>1</sup>

Is it truly paleography then if you're reproducing the attempts of communication of another instead of just translating their attempts? Most seem to agree that because you're studying someone else's handwriting this is still the study of paleography.

For my first exercise in analyzing a hand I wanted to find a text written by one person that held as many examples as possible of letters and words that I would need for a basic award text. I found countless texts but the most difficult letters to find on the same page were W, Q and K which are letters that we often use in our award texts.

Reminders about the progression of the alphabet noted that I'd probably not find these letters together in one hand until the later time periods. I finally did find a book from 16th century England that not only had the letters I wanted but also had several relevant words that I would want for an award text, ex: king, queen, etc.

To be Continued in April.

The Canton of Buckston-on-Eno invites all to join them for a day in honor of St. Vitus, the patron saint of dancers on April 19, 2008.

Hone your skills with a selection of classes during the day and then show off your fancy footwork at our evening ball!

Capriol, a young dance student, tells us that "Without knowledge of dancing, I could not please the damsels, upon whom, it seems to me, the reputation of an eligible young man depends." (Jehan Tabourot in Orchesography, 1589)

Lest you fail to please the damsels or risk your reputation, you must dust off your finery and come strut your stuff - on the dance floor or off! For those who may not wish to dance all the day long, we will offer a salon featuring period games.

Lady Beatrice Villani will offer a light sideboard feast during the ball so that you may refresh yourselves between dances, and we invite all attendees to contribute to our dessert revel!
