Letter from the Baronage

We write this missive during the coldest time of the year while we are warmed by the fire of our hearth and the support of the citizens of our Barony!

As Baronage, we are incredibly grateful to our officers, champions, event staff, retainers, guards, and each and every person who gives of their time and talents so others can enjoy the SCA. It is volunteers that ensure we are able to continue doing what we do. Thank you.

In February, we will again celebrate the Tourney Ymir. During this event, we will enjoy fighting, feasting, a variety of arts, and much more. Their Majesties and many others from across our Kingdom, and possibly from other Kingdoms will visit us in our home. We hope to showcase the hospitality of our Barony as hosts and enjoy their company. Additionally, in support of the Baronial coffers, there are two fundraisers planned. If you have things to donate to the silent auction, please contact Lady Helwynn. Likewise, Lady Katarina is seeking baked goods and other items for a bake sale as well as volunteers to staff it during the day.

With March comes the Grand Tourney of Friends co-hosted by the Cantons of Attillium and Elvegast. We will be selecting many of our baronial champions at this event including rapier, armoured, equestrian, performing & static arts, and brewing. If it is your desire to be considered as a potential champion, we will ask you to demonstrate your skill in your chosen field and participation in one of the other two pillars of the SCA (martial, arts & sciences, or service). Please let us know if you have any questions.

Letter from the Seneschal

Greetings Windmasters,

As you all know, we are an all-volunteer organization, and an all-volunteer organization cannot run without really cool volunteers. We have some volunteer opportunities currently open:

The Office of the Baronial Chatelaine

The Baronial Youth Rapier Marshal

The Baronial Rapier Marshal (unless Gawain is already assuming this position as he has previously expressed interest in this office)

The Baronial Calendar Deputy

And most importantly our next Baronial Exchequer. Lady Trepine has served the Barony diligently in what is without a doubt one of the most demanding positions in the barony for the last 7 years. Her warrant runs out in August, we need to find her a replacement in time to allow her to step down before her warrant expires.

If you are an awesome volunteer type and you are interested in fulfilling one of these open positions, their Excellencies request that you send your letters (e-mail will suffice) of intent to myself and the Baronage. We would like to have some time to discuss potential candidates before the March Meeting.

Our most pressing need is Chatelaine and soon to be Rapier Marshal & Exchequer, without these roles being filled, we are severely limited in what we can accomplish.

Please do not be intimidated if you have not held an officer position before, you will have myself and the whole Barony here to support you.

If you have any questions about and office vacancy, please feel free to contact me.

We have events coming up!!! Ymir in February and Tournament of Friends in March. There is no better way to show your support for the SCA than to attend events. I hope to see you there!

Thank you,
Adelric Falke

WINDMASTERS' HILL COOKS GUILD

Viking Fish Chowder

Many people were asking for the recipe for the Fish Chowder that I made at the Tourney of Ymir 2004 on Saturday. Well problem is that I didn't follow a recipe.

So in the finest tradition of chefs before me ...

Take a browne roux and cast it into a pot with gode cleyne broth of hene. Stir in a bucket of mylke and one of good wholesome creame. Chop together several dozen tame clams and clams water and place them there in. Also take the water of a hundred tame clams and cast that in also. Stir thus well or it will not be harten. Take parsleye, and baseile and garlic and salyte and place that into and stirwell. Take the meat of Chinese fish and meat of shellfish there enough and the meat of crabs also a newte amount and cast all into the pot therein. If you do not stir with a goode hearte and a God's will it will not be goode. Serve the Lord his portion with much bits of fish and shellfish but for the commoner the brothe is enough.

Enjoy

Eogan mac Ailpein, maker of soppe

Viking Foods

“You may be wondering just how we know what the Viking diet contained. There are no Fanny Craddock's cookbooks surviving from those times. Instead we have to rely on the archaeologist whose painstaking work has revealed the remains of the Dark Age menu. Fish bones, seeds from berries, and the husks from grain are all present in Viking latrines (toilets) and middens (rubbish dumps). Surprisingly these food remains aren't necessarily the same as modern ones. Domesticated animal bones such as cows and pigs are two-thirds the size of modern ones. Similarly wheat grains are smaller and less nutritious.¹”

Common foods were smoked or salted meat and fish, fresh meat, eggs, fruit (both fresh & dried), bread, butter and cheese.

2014 Tourney of Ymir

Tournament of Ymir
February 21- 23, 2014

Reidsville, NC

Wistric Oftun—Autocrat

ACCEPS is open for February's Tournament of Ymir in the Barony of Windmaster's Hill:
<http://acceps.ansteorra.org/index.php>

Bask in the warm summer, friends, let it soak into your bones. As you sweat and swelter, embrace it. Welcome the heat with joy in your heart, for the hrimpursar come driving the sleet and snow before them. Already on the march, the father of the jotnar, Ymir turns his eyes to Atlantia, determined to bring ice to our lands, and our souls. Brace yourselves. Winter is coming.

There will be at least three competitions at Ymir this year. Details of two of them are below.

There will also be an Artisans Row and an open display space.

Pillage!

To enter this challenge you must be willing to lose your entry to the winner because the winner takes all the entries for their prize. Make your best or bring your mediocre and pit it against other artisans. Bonus points are added for both documentation and connection to our Viking theme.

Plunder!

This is an onsite challenge. The Vikings couldn't bring everything on their ships so they had to create things using what they found or took in the villages they conquered. All entrants will need to show off their knowledge of Viking artifacts by creating an object using tools and materials on site. You may buy, borrow, scavenge, or plunder to create their object. Once the object is complete you must tell the epic saga of your creation to the judges. Details on the category of artifacts will be provided at the Arts and Sciences table on site.

Love and Lutefisk or, Arlecchino goes to Norway! Windmaster's own very talented Commedia del arte group, i Firenzi will be entertaining the populace at Ymir with their latest Viking-themed performance.

In addition there will be armored and rapier tourneys, archery activities, dancing & bardic, a tavern, Viking rugby and a fantastic feast!

Baronial Silent Auction Fundraiser

At Ymir, there will be a silent auction as a fundraiser for the Barony.

I am currently looking for item is good condition for the silent auction so if you have any event lost & found items (over 1 year old) now is a good time to get rid of those items. So, take a few minutes to go through your closets and garage and see if there are any SCA-related items to donate for this silent auction.

If you have questions or items for donation.

Please contact Helwynn Ivelchild at ladyhelwynn <at> yahoo.com

Announcement Regarding the Society Chirurgeonate Request for Comments

The SCA Board of Directors seeks commentary on a proposal to eliminate the official Office of the Chirurgeonate, and the associated changes to Corpora necessary to accomplish this action.

The Office of the Society Chirurgeon has been providing exemplary service to the Society since 1986. The Society and Board of Directors are tremendously grateful for the sterling service the Office of the Society Chirurgeon has provided over the years, and hope to continue to allow licensed first aid providers to provide such service, while needing to take into account the realities of the climate in which the SCA currently operates.

The Board of Directors has been advised by its outside counsel, as well as by its insurance company, that having officers of the Corporation acting as emergency services providers and warranting them as official Chirurgeons represents an unacceptable assumption of liability by the Corporation for the actions of these individuals. The SCA can allow individual medical professionals to provide emergency care under their own licenses and the various Good Samaritan laws. Such services can also be provided by professional emergency services organizations and companies that provide such services. However, having corporate officers and warranted officials do so represents an unacceptable risk according to both our outside counsel and our insurance company.

Acting upon the recommendations of our professional advisors, the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc. seeks commentary regarding a proposal to eliminate the Office of the Society Chirurgeon, the Kingdom and local Chirurgeons, and all associated Deputies and warranted Chirurgeons as of a future date. All Society Chirurgeonate activities and warrants of office would cease at that time. Any emergency services at SCA activities would thereafter only be performed by Good Samaritans under their own licenses, or by professionals or professional organizations specifically hired or called by event staff to provide such services.

Individuals with appropriate emergency care related licenses or those acting under the general Good Samaritan laws that might be applicable are, of course, free to provide emergency care at SCA activities under the terms of their licenses and applicable state and local laws. However, they would be doing so as volunteers and would not be warranted by the SCA nor hold an SCA office related to the provision of emergency care services. Similarly, professional emergency care organizations (e.g., municipal, non-profit or for-profit ambulance providers) that are not affiliated with or part of the SCA or any SCA organization, might provide emergency care services at SCA events (particularly larger SCA wars) through arranged voluntary or for-hire agreements with event staff. Licensed individuals would still be able to provide significant service to their local groups, Kingdoms, and the Society by offering to provide any emergency services under their own licenses (and would thus be worthy of any and all appropriate awards) — but would no longer be providing such services through an official Society Chirurgeonate.

The SCA would no longer maintain an Office of the Society Chirurgeon, Kingdom or local Chirurgeons, or warrant any Chirurgeons or Chirurgeonate activity. However, individuals are still encouraged to meet and pursue any and all SCA-related interests on their own. People are, of course, free to pursue and provide emergency care at SCA activities as licensed medical practitioners under the licensing laws of their state or any Good Samaritan laws that might be applicable. Any such unofficial organizations, communications, or provision of emergency care related services would not be sponsored or overseen by the SCA, Inc. or any of its groups.

The SCA would no longer have Corporate, Kingdom, or local Chirurgeon officers or warranted Chirurgeons, so any and all class material taught on any related subjects would be developed and provided by SCA members individually and based on their own accreditation, licenses, and experience. Because the SCA, Inc., does not endorse or supply the content of any classes taught at SCA activities (other than those being taught by Officers in support of their Office), individual members are free to teach classes on any material that might be related to unofficial first aid activities, but would be doing so strictly as individuals with no official sanction or involvement of SCA, Inc. As individuals, such service could also be considered worthy of any and all appropriate awards, although there would be no relationship to an official Society Chirurgeonate.

The Board of Directors seeks comments on the matter through 03/18/2014, which can be directed to comments@sca.org. Additionally, we invite all those interested to send their comments to the Society Chirurgeon (chirurgeon@sca.org). The Board of Directors invites the populace to take advantage of the range of our communication outlets -- including email lists, social media venues, and public meetings -- to discuss the issue, but would simply like to remind everybody that courtesy and the presumption of honor are core values of the Society, and apply equally in on line venues as they do at SCA events. Additionally, the Board of Directors will be holding a public meeting at Gulf Wars, where these interested in discussing this issue are welcome to hear what the Board has to say and share their feedback.

Comments are strongly encouraged and can be sent to:

SCA Inc.
Box 360789
Milpitas, CA 95036

You may also email comments@lists.sca.org.
