Baronial Meeting

The meeting was called to order on Sunday, March 16, 2014 at 5:10 PM.

Meeting Location: Optimist Farm (Apex, NC)

Paid members present: 30 Non-Members: 4

Seneschal Report:
Welcome newcomers!

Open positions:
Exchequer!
Rory stepped up as Baronial Rapier Marshal and we have a candidate for the Baronial Chatelain.

Group seneschals—please remember to take a look at your information on the Baronial website, newsletter, canton websites to make sure all information is correct and up to date.

Ymir 2015—Site reserved for next year (weekend of Feb 27). This is later than usual due to the cost difference because earlier the site charges more to non-winterize earlier than usual.

Motion was made to allocate $500 for site deposit. This was seconded. None opposed.

Anyone interested in putting in a bid for Ymir please contact the Seneschal. Information will be coming out soon regarding bid requirements, etc. Would like to have a bid/autocrat decided by August at the latest.

Baronial Fundraiser—Bakesale at Ymir—$566.00 raised. Next time make sure there are more non-sweet food options available. The two locations (field & hall) worked well.

Thank you to all who volunteered at Ymir!
Their Majesties left a note and donation to the Barony thanking us for hosting a great event and letting them hold the Travel Fund silent auction.

Baronial Fundraiser—Silent Auction at Tourney of Friends—Need donations of new or gently used items. Remember to stop by the auction and buy things. All proceeds to go to the Barony's general fund. Acknowledgement of donation forms available to those who donate items to the auction if requested.

Before the meeting they held an Ymir Review meeting—in the future need to focus more on communication and printed materials.

Letter from the Baronage

Greetings to the people of Windmasters' Hill,

This year's Tourney of Friends will soon be a fond memory and we will turn to the events of April and May. During these months, you will find His Excellency and I attending Coronation, Crown Tourney, May Fair, and Ruby Joust.

Remember that we will not have a baronial gathering in April because of Easter, but we look forward to our next Baronial Althing which will occur on Sunday, May 18 at Optimist Farm. The Althing will again offer chances for fighting (armoured and rapier), archery, arts and sciences classes and gatherings, a potluck dinner and more!

Additionally, we ask you to consider stepping up as our baronial exchequer. Mistress Trepheine has served us for seven years in this capacity, and it is time for her to pass the baronial ledgers onto another. Please let our seneschal know if you are interested in stepping in as her replacement. If we find someone soon, they will have time to work with Mistress Trepheine for a few months before she officially hands over the office.

Finally, next year's Ymir is already on the calendar! It will occur on February 28, 2015 at Betsy Jeff Penn. His Excellency and I are very excited to see who might be next year's event steward. If you have any questions about the bid process for Ymir or any other event, please contact our esteemed seneschal.

Letter from the Chronicler

Greetings from your Chronicler!

As always, I am looking for submissions for this newsletter. The Windlore is a great way to share information, cool ideas, and other stuff that other folks in the Barony would find interesting. If you teach a class, please consider writing up an article!

As part of this process, you do need to submit a signed release form with any submissions. An email stating you give permission is not enough—we need the signed form on file. You can scan and email this form to me, that is OK.

The Grant of Use form is for any non-photo submission (articles, poems, etc.). Officers posting letters/reports do not have to sign a release for those items.

The Photographer Release form is for photo submissions from the person who took/owns the photo(s) and the Model Release form is from those who are identified in the photo. Large group photos where no one is identified do not need model release forms; however, I do ask that you be courteous with these kinds of photos as not everyone wishes their photo taken/published for various reasons.

Links to these forms are below.

If you have any questions about the submission process or if you have things to submit (PLEASE!) feel free to ask me. Thank you!

Yours in Service,
Lady Helwynn Ivelchild

The Chroniclers Lament

As spring keeps hiding her fair face
And ice and wind and chill pervade,
We await warmer days with grace
Looking to summer unafraid.

Longing for springtime's sweet embrace

We focus on plans to be made.
It is to this I lay my case
And kindly plead for your aid.

This missive may seem dramatic
But its meaning is a request.
This Chronicler entreats emphatic
For what she needs you might have guessed;

Contribution's problematic

To see the Windlore at its best.
You would see her quite ecstatic
If with submissions she was blessed.

So I beg and plead and cajole;
I rub in ashes and pull hair!
You will find me hard to console
For sackcloth garments I do wear.
To show your talents is my goal.
With the world this Barony I share
By monthly sending out this scroll.
Windmasters' is beyond compare!

So send me your poems, your art!
Compose fair songs to make us weep.
Write fine stories to thrill the heart.
What colors should we dye our sheep?
Tempt with your recipe for tarts.
Where do we find our fabric cheap?
These articles do make us smart!
Know Windmasters' is not asleep!

So I leave you all to ponder
What fantastic things you will endow
To fill the Windlore with wonder
And show the world how we meow!

A Challenge to All Windy Kittys

This weekend will be the Tournament of Friends.

This event was grown and created out of cultivating and strengthening friendships within our wonderful Barony and the SCA. With the very underlying theme of this event in mind, I issue a challenge to all of those of Windmasters' Hill:

A Friendship Challenge.

This challenge is meant to help strengthen and grow our Barony, as well as us as individuals. Over the next year, I challenge all of you to seek to build and strengthen: friendships, relationships between Cantons, and our Barony as whole. Consider it a year of tending our garden to help our Barony grow and flourish together.

Some ways to do this could be:

1. Hosting joint Canton meetings/fighter practices.
2. Opening up your home/hosting a SCA Social, A & S, Newcomers, or All (Social, A & S, & Newcomers all at the same time) Nights.
3. Inviting people to join you in your activity that appear to be alone at an event or meeting.
4. Introducing yourself to new people or people you don't know very well within the Barony.
5. Sharing your A & S or fighting talents by teaching them to others within the Barony.
6. Tell someone that you are thankful/grateful for something nice that they did.
7. Volunteer and offer to help at events or activities, even if it is not your Canton hosting it.
8. Encourage others and help them along the way as they find their way through the SCA.

These are only a few ideas. I will promise you this right now, if you invite me to an activity or night that is planned within our Barony, I will do everything with my power to get out of work and get there. I will do my best over the next year to encourage and cultivate friendship and the growth of individuals and our Barony as a whole. Will you join me in this challenge? I hope so... nothing is fun without having friends by your side.

Always Yours in Service and Friendship,

Herrin Emeludt Hänsler (mka Emmie Smith)

WINDMASTERS' HILL COOKS GUILD

BYZANTINE BREAD

Lady Helwynn Ivelchild

The people of Byzantium were strongly influenced by the Romans who came before them and bread was a staple food in Byzantium. An unknown author in the 7th century described what he believed was a wholesome loaf in the Byzantine dietary text, De Cibis, “Bread made from wheat is the best and most nutritious of all foods. Particularly if white, with a moderate use of yeast and salt, the dough kneaded midway between dryness and rawness, and with a little anise, fennel seed and mastic, it is very fine indeed. One with a hot constitution should include sesame in the dough. If wishing to add more moistness to the bread, knead in some almond oil.”¹

One of the spices used in this bread may be unfamiliar. Mastic is the resin of an evergreen plant and is common in some modern Greek and Turkish cooking. It is also a common spice in the traditional Greek Easter bread, Tsoureki. You can order the spice online or you can sometimes find it in stores specializing in Greek foods.

Recipe created based on the above description from De Cibis:

Ingredients:

10 oz unbleached bread flour
10 oz whole wheat flour
1 ¾ cups lukewarm water
1 Tbsp. Kosher salt
1 tsp. Fennel seed (ground)
1 tsp. Anise seeds (ground)
½ tsp. Mastic (ground)
1 tsp. Sesame seeds (optional)
1 cup yeast starter*
1 Tbsp. Almond oil

Combine all ingredients except for the almond oil. Knead the dough adding the oil during kneading and then let rest for 1 – 2 hours until it doubles in size. Punch down and form into loaves (I usually make two medium-sized loaves) and let rise another hour. Dock the dough by slicing slits in the loaves. Bake in a 400 degree oven for 35 – 40 minutes.

*Sour Dough Starter

Ingredients:

1 cup wheat flour
1 cup water

Mix and let sit in a warm place for 5 – 7 days. Stir each day with a non-metal utensil and drain off any alcohol which forms on top. You may need to add more flour to the mix after a few days to keep “feeding” the yeast.

If you wish to use commercial yeast instead of the starter, add 1 Tbsp instant yeast (not rapid rise) to the water a couple minutes before adding the water to the flour in the above recipe.
